

Research Collaboration with RTRI, Japan

The Research Designs & Standards Organisation under Ministry of Railway & Railway Technical Research Institute, Japan signed a Memorandum of Understanding on 11th December, 2015 to promote co-operation in Railway Research & Development. The areas of technical co-operation include safety in train operation, advanced maintenance techniques, throughput enhancement & use of environment friendly technique.

